

Early Activities

- 7-11am Wilmore Lions Club Annual Pancake Breakfast – Wilmore Elementary School. $4 each, preschoolers $1.
- 8am-3pm Model Train Display-The Providence School. Bring the kids of all ages to see the impressive Model Train Display by Robin Grider of Harrodsburg.
- 8am-4pm Jessamine Proud Products Store -The Providence School. Featuring over 10 local vendors and items such as candles, jewelry, walking sticks, knit hats, wooden bowls, salsa & more.
- 9am-4pm Ten Thousand Villages & Craft Fair – Wilmore Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall. Handicrafts from around the world.
- 9am-3pm Homemade Christmas Craft Fair – Asbury Seminary Gym. Refreshments, handmade pottery, jewelry, wreaths, artwork and much, much more!
- 11am-3pm Complimentary Horse Carriage Rides – Round trip from the front of The Providence School.
- Noon-5pm Open House – Potter's Inn. 313 Walters Ln. Pottery sale.
- 1pm & 3pm "Christmas with a Capital C". 2 free showings of this film at the Miller Communication Arts Center, Asbury University. Screenplay is by AU Alumna Andrea Gyertson '95 Nasfell.
- 1pm & 4pm Wilmore Christian School of Ballet – Christmas Joy & The Advent. McKenna Chapel. Free admission (ticket required).
- 1-4pm Open House – Francis Asbury Society Ministry Center. 1580 Lexington Rd. Stop by for refreshments and music from Dan & Renita Koehn and Krista Padgett.
- 2-5:30pm Open House – Pedersen Chiropractic. (across from Clucker's). Stop by for a free cook-out.

Evening Festivities

- 5-7:30pm Community Service Center of Wilmore / High Bridge Benefit
Wilmore United Methodist Church basement. Eat your evening meal here to help support an organization that gives so much to the community.
- 5:00pm Elf Costume Contest – Meet in the Wilmore UMC basement for judging and prizes.
- 5:30pm Tree Lighting Ceremony – Wilmore United Methodist Church parking lot on Main Street. Prizes awarded to winners of Elf Costume Contest and the Best Decorated Homes. A special visitor is scheduled to arrive.
- Seasonal Music – Performed by the Salvation Army Brass Band under the direction of Dr. Ron Holz.
- 6-7:45pm Local Businesses Open –
Featuring local musicians to celebrate the holidays.
(See list on back.)
- * Special note – Some refreshments will be for sale and some very light refreshments will be available at some downtown tables. Please patronage our local restaurants for your refreshment needs.*
- 8:00 pm Grand Finale – Wilmore United Methodist Church.
All-Town Choir & Salvation Army Student Fellowship under the direction of Dr. Ron Holz.

Special thanks to the Wilmore Fire Department and Santa for all the special treats. Santa will be located at Wilmore Presbyterian Church after the Tree Lighting. Please plan on visiting the businesses on that end of town also.

Please note that this is a partial list of businesses to be open.
This was information available at the time of printing.

Businesses & Musicians

Wilmore City Hall – featuring seasonal music
Scott Station Inn – featuring seasonal music
Wilmore United Methodist Church – Kenyon Hall-CSC Benefit;
Clark Chapel-Jessamine Jazz Ensemble
First Southern Bank – featuring seasonal music
Solomon's Porch – featuring Joe Letchworth,
Gideon Maki & Hannah Flynn
Wilmore Presbyterian Church – a special visitor during the evening
Mt. Freedom Baptist Church – seasonal music
Wilmore Laundromat – children's gifts and coupons
Subway – featuring seasonal music
Kentucky Bank – featuring Howard's Creek
The Rose Garden – featuring Gabe Gibitz
Shalah's Studio Creations – featuring Michael Snowden
Integrity Tax Service – featuring seasonal music
Jerri's Corner- featuring seasonal music
328 Studios – featuring The Blue Dawg Trio
Rice House – featuring seasonal music
St Joseph Primary Care Assoc. – featuring seasonal music
Jessamine County Public Library - visit their table downtown
Wilmore Free Methodist Church- visit their table downtown

Welcome to the 23rd Annual Wilmore's Old-Fashioned Musical Christmas

Entire day filled with activities for all ages. Local businesses & musicians will be showcased throughout the evening. All events are free and open to the public and will remain on schedule regardless of the weather.

Restrooms available in the churches.

Come greet the season and share the spirit of Christmas with community friends and families. Happy Holidays!